

Get caught reading!

Hands up - Who likes reading?

ATTENTION EVERYONE!!!!

During the half term holiday, we want you to get involved in our reading competition. We are setting you a challenge but do not fear - there will be a prize for the lucky winners.

Your mission, if you choose to accept it, is to read something! (Books are the norm but we will also accept magazines, comics, annuals, etc.)

Easy, you say? Well that's not all. We want you to be imaginative and 'Get Caught Reading' in a variety of different places such as the back garden, up a tree, Loggerheads, or even the top of Snowdon! All photographs submitted will be displayed ready for World Book Day. A winner will be chosen from Key Stage 2 and Foundation Phase. So, get thinking. Are you going anywhere interesting over half term? Can you get someone to take a photograph and develop it in time for Friday 26th February?

Bring your photograph in before this date and give it to your class teacher or Mr Griffiths. Photographs will be judged by an external visitor on Wednesday 2nd March and the lucky winners will be announced on Friday 4th March 2016. Good luck!
